

GREEK (GRK)

GRK 7100 Greek Literature 3 cr

A reading course involving a selected Greek author or authors, or a set of related works. The course content may vary. Students can earn multiple credits for this course only when the topic subtitle is different.

GRK 7110 Topics in Greek History 3 cr

This course will investigate aspects of Greek history, emphasizing different topics, sources, and theoretical approaches. Possible focuses for the course include a period of Greek history, or a particular region of the Greek world. The course content may vary. Students can earn multiple credits for this course only when the topic subtitle is different.