<sup>5</sup> Most 2000 level studio courses will require completion of a minimum 21 credit hours of 1000 level studio courses, therefore students should be advised that this component is normally fulfilled by 9 credit hours of 1000 level courses.

<sup>6</sup> Studio Electives can be fulfilled by any course taught by the School of Art under the course code STDO except STDO 1510 which is not considered a Studio Elective course for the purposes of this program.

<sup>8</sup> Honours Students wishing to take more than the 18 credit hours of Art History courses listed above may use their Academic Electives to do so.
