

SLAVIC STUDIES (POL,RUSN,UKRN) (SLAV)

SLAV 3530 Special Topics in Comparative German and Slavic Studies 3 cr

Language of instruction: English. Topics comparing German and Slavic – Ukrainian, Russian, Polish – literatures and cultures. Course is co-taught by a member from the German and one from the Slavic Section. Course content will vary from year to year depending on interests and needs of students and staff. Possible Topics include Memory of World War II, Cold War and Post-Cold War, and Modernism. The course content may vary. Students can earn multiple credits for this course only when the topic subtitle is different. Students may not hold credit for both SLAV 3530 and GRMN 3530 when topic is the same.

PR/CR: A minimum grade of C is required unless otherwise indicated.

Prerequisite: [a grade of "C" or better in a minimum of 24 credit hours of university level coursework] or written consent of department head.

Attributes: Humanities, Written English Requirement

SLAV 3920 Gogol 3 cr

A study of the author's major fiction and his influence on Russian and Ukrainian cultures and identity politics.

Attributes: Humanities